TO STUDENTS

Following the meeting held by faculty members on Thursday February 20th, you are informed that the end of semester make-up exams will be held during the week from March 14 to March 19, 2020. There will be no teaching activities during this week and absences in recitations and labs will not be taken into account. However, it is up to the teachers, in consultation with student representatives of their promotion, to decide on carrying out activities considered useful or necessary during the above-mentioned period.
